

CURRICULUM VITAE

■ Education:

- 2015- 2017 *Master of Science: Erasmus Mundus programme: Joint European Master of Environmental Studies in Cities & Sustainability. Studied at: Technical University Hamburg-Harburg (TUHH), Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB), Aalborg Universitet (AAU), Columbia University in New York City; *Final Grade 1,7, A-
- gained knowledge in sustainable businesses models, environmental modulation, Post- and Degrowth scenarios, financing sustainability
- 2011-2015 *Bachelor of Engineering: Industrial Engineering, specialized in Renewable Energies, University of Applied Sciences Düsseldorf; *Final Grade 1,7, A-
- Climate Balancing and LCA-Analysis

■ Scholarships & Awards:

- Since 2021 Fellow of the Arts, Nature & Social Club
- Since 2020 Fellow of the Club of Rome under 30, Think Tank 30
- Since 2016 Scholarship and Alumni by the German National Merit Foundation "Stiftung des deutschen Volkes"
- 2017 Research Scholarship for the Earth Institute, Columbia University in New York City

■ Working Experience:

- since 2018 Self-employed, Innovator of "Mission Winzig" and Co-founder of Tiny Pop Up Munich
- built an ecological house only by autodidactic means; gained high reputation by presenting for TV, newspapers and magazines; consulted more than 30 customers, experienced in designing inspiring workshops, experienced in giving presentations for big audiences (>100 people)
- 2020 Project management at „Einmal ohne, bitte!“ a project by Rehab Republic (NGO) to tackle plastic waste
- responsible to campaign for a plastic-free week. Coordination with: companies, cooperation and customers; responsible for customer acquisition: taking care of existing clients and winning new ones by phone, mail and in-house visits
- 2019 Project Leader of a Tiny House
- project management: planning, designing, budgeting (45.000€) and delegating three workers
- 2017 Research Assistant for my dissertation and the book chapter The Financial Ecosystem at the Earth Institute at Columbia University, New York City
- rigorous and academic work on the topic, financing and pricing nature

■ Volunteering Experience:

- 2015 Developing a sustainability platform at the municipality of Aalborg, Denmark
- coordinating students and mobilizing them for sustainable events
- 2015 Designing a Solar Thermal Heat Collector at the NGO "Educare India" in Gajner, India
- within 3 weeks, lived and mastered the Indian culture and developed a sustainable product for remote villages

■ Trainings & Certificates:

2020	"Fundamentals of GIS", 4-Week MOOC Course by University of California, Davis
2018	Mission Winzig was awarded # startupnextdoor and is coached by a MINI executive board
2017	Postgrowth and Degrowth courses in Germany at the MoveUtopia and in Barcelona (ICTA): A New Era to Growth
2017	"How to Publish and Write a Scientific Paper", 4-Week MOOC Course by Ecolé Polytechnique, France
2015	"Introduction to Sustainability", 8- Week MOOC Course by the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, USA

■ Languages:

- German and Russian (native languages), English: C2, French: B2, Spanish: A2

■ Passions:

- Sports: Alpinism, Climbing and backcountry skiing
- Music: Playing saxophone in my Jazz-band "MangoMindset"
- Nature: hiking, tenting and being exposed to nature